

PLOT

Alleged to Have Been Arranged by Pennell

With Handsome Woman to Lure Burdick Into a Trap

Mrs. Burdick Swears She Has no Knowledge as to Who Killed Her Husband—The Buffalo Inquest—Mrs. Paine's Statement.

New York, March 25—A Journal special from Buffalo today reports the discovery of a plot, alleged to have been concerted by Arthur R. Pennell, with a beautiful woman as a lure to entrap Edwin L. Burdick into a situation which would prevent him from pressing his suit or divorce. The discovery, the dispatch says, has resulted in placing under police surveillance the woman and man who is alleged to have brought her to Buffalo. Arrests will be made, according to the story, if either of the two attempts to leave the city.

It is said to be the plan of District Attorney Coatsworth to place the woman on the witness stand when revelations fully as sensational as those made by Mrs. Burdick are expected. It is said that the woman and the man and possibly two other men will then be arrested.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 25—After defending stubbornly and courageously the name of Arthur E. Pennell, the man she loved, the man who was madly infatuated with her, Mrs. Alice Hull Burdick, at the close of a four hour siege on the witness stand turned upon him. She admitted that he was gravely agitated over the divorce proceedings which threatened to involve him; worried almost to despair over the prospect of his love letters to her becoming public and subjecting him to ridicule; fearful lest his reputation, which was dear to him, become blackened by impending revelations, and was given to thoughts of self-destruction and the deepest despair.

Mrs. Burdick declared that Pennell was infatuated with her and admitted that her repeated promises to her husband, made in absolute faith, were broken because of Pennell's persistence in seeking her out and forcing the meetings which resulted in so much unhappiness, and, as the authorities believe, the murder of Mr. Burdick.

She insisted that her only outbursts of affection with Pennell were kisses and innocent embraces. Had she ever known that he intended harm to her husband, notwithstanding that she loved him and did not love Mr. Burdick, she would have warned Burdick, she declared. Mrs. Burdick's admissions were under the questioning of her own attorney.

It developed during the inquest that Pennell had given to Mrs. Burdick a $50,000 bond to insure to her the payment in November, 1902, of $25,000, and if not paid at that time to remain as a claim upon the estate. This bond was found in Mrs. Burdick's box in a deposit company's vault, but she denied ever having seen it or knowing of its existence.

That it is the aim of the prosecuting authorities to show that the death of Mr. Burdick was due to a conspiracy, and that Arthur R. Pennell was the arch conspirator, could not be doubted by those who heard the proceedings.

Great stress was laid by the District Attorney upon the admitted fact that after Mrs. Burdick, in Atlantic City, learned in a dispatch from her mother that Mr. Burdick was dead, she wired Pennell to meet her at the station in Buffalo.

This question was put to Mrs. Burdick: "Have you received any information as to who killed your husband?" "No, sir." "You swear you have no knowledge or information as to who killed him?" "I do."

She denied that Mr. Pennell took her key to the front door of the Burdick home while they were in New York together and had duplicates made of it. The district attorney put the question regarding the key to Mrs. Burdick in a number of different forms, but the answers were always denials that she or Pennell had ever ordered duplicate keys made or that the key had ever left her possession.

Mrs. Burdick left the stand at 4:15 o'clock. To complete the examination of everyone known to have been in the Burdick home on the night of February 26, when Burdick was murdered, the district attorney called to the stand the two youngest Burdick children, Carol and Alice, aged respectively 13 and 10 years. The district attorney questioned the children closely about the events that occurred at their home on the night before and the morning after the murder of their father. The children displayed no more signs of emotion than the grandmother, mother or oldest sister, while talking about the terrible death of their father.

The recollection of the happenings at the time of the tragedy was rather hazy, and "I don't remember" was usually the answer they gave when the district attorney pressed them closely on any point.

Mrs. Burdick's testimony covered the week in which Burdick was murdered and the name of Pennell was almost constantly upon her lips. She trusted him implicitly in everything. The district attorney read a number of letters written to Mrs. Burdick by Pennell in which he said life was not worth living without her and that death would not be unwelcome. She knew nothing of a document found in her safety deposit vault bonding Pennell to pay her $25,000 in the event of his being unable to marry her.

Although it was among Mrs. Burdick's private papers in the vault she claimed to be ignorant of its existence. Mrs. Burdick declared that the last time she saw Pennell was on Tuesday before the murder. He left her that night in Atlantic City, arriving in Buffalo Wednesday. She was informed of Mr. Burdick's death by a message from Mrs. Hull on the following Friday and hastened to Buffalo.

Sp reached her home Saturday morning. A brief note of sympathy from Pennell came to the house that day. She never heard from or saw him she said, between that time and the day he was killed by his automobile plunging into the stone quarry.

Cross-examined by Attorney Hartzell Mrs. Burdick said that Pennell learned at the charity ball that Burdick had secured from her the letters which Pennell had written to her. He seemed much agitated and wanted the letters back.

"Did he fear the revelations of a divorce action?"

"Yes, very much."

"Now, at the Golf club, whom did you usually associate with?"

"Pennell."

"With your husband's knowledge and consent?"

"Yes, sir."

"And whom did Burdick associate with?"

"Other women."

"Were you ever in a compromising position with Pennell?"

"No, sir."

"He was always a perfect gentleman?"

"Yes, sir."

"Then why was he afraid of the divorce proceedings?"

"He was afraid of being humiliated."

"As you came from Atlantic City and promised your husband that you would be a good girl did you resist Pennell and refuse to make appointments with him?"

"I did."

"And did he constantly solicit you and importune you and waylay you and did you finally yield?"

"Yes, sir."

"Was Mr. Burdick very fond of the ladies?"

"Yes, he was very fond of them."

"Pennell never made any threats against your husband?"

"No, sir."

"Mr. Burdick and Mrs. Pennell were very friendly?"

"Yes, sir."

"And he would have admitted her to his home at any time?"

"Yes, sir."

"At night?"

"Yes, sir."

"Without any fear?"

"Yes, sir."

"Mrs. Pennell had been in your house many times?"

"Yes, sir."

"And she was familiar with the dining room and the den?"

"Yes, sir."

"The door of the den faced the front door, did it not?"

"Yes, sir."

"And a person could tap on the window of the front door and attract the attention of any one in the den without ringing the door bell?"

"Yes, sir."

The inquest then adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

MRS PAINE'S STATEMENT.

New York, March 25—Mrs. Gertrude B. Paine, who has figured prominently in the Burdick murder mystery, makes a statement over her signature, reviewing the sensational evidence given by Mrs. Burdick in the investigation at Buffalo.

The statement follows:

"All of the testimony is a shock to me. I have no idea and would never have believed until now, that such an intrigue existed between Mr. Pennell and Mrs. Burdick."

"I thought they were fond of each other and perhaps had been imprudent, but I did not believe any of the stories told by Mr. Burdick about them."

"The greatest surprise in the whole testimony to me is the letters from Carrie Pennell to Mr. Burdick, in which she begs him for the sake of her children to forgive his wife. They are noble letters, but they show a more intimate knowledge of her husband's attentions to Mrs. Burdick than I imagined she possessed. When I last talked to Carrie about the divorce rumors, some weeks before Mr. Burdick's death she warmly defended her husband and Mrs. Burdick."

"These things about Allie and Arthur are untrue," she said. "They have been imprudent and indiscreet, but I know there was never anything wrong. Arthur and I will stand by Allie and help her, either with financial aid or advice."

"I thought at the time that Mrs. Pennell believed this, as I myself really believed it."

From the letters written by her and produced, though, it becomes apparent that she understood the situation, and wrote out of the good, brave womanly heart.

"I am amazed at Mrs. Burdick, but I can only feel pity for her. Poor woman! I never felt more sorry for any one in my life. But I cannot understand her. The worst feature of it all is that she could accept financial aid from Pennell, or agree to accept it. Certainly no one in Buffalo would have dreamed of the existence of that bond, by which Pennell bound himself to pay to her $25,000. That is utterly incomprehensible to me. Through it all Mr. Burdick showed his magnanimous spirit. His letters are noble. He was ready to forgive his wife, even after he knew that she had tried. The most striking feature of the whole thing is this."

"His last thought when I saw him was his wife's future. In all of his own sorrow, he did not lose sight of that. He believed that Pennell had tried for her."

"Mr. Burdick knew that Pennell had forced his wife to put in a defense to his suit after she had acknowledged her guilt."

CIVIL SERVICE

Washington, March 25—The plan of civil service to be taken over thousands of places on April 1 by order of President Roosevelt. On that date the revision of the civil service rules which has been under consideration since last August, will go into effect and the influence of a "pull" in public office will be, in theory at least, materially lessened. The effect of the revision is to bring under civil service a large number of jobs that have been heretofore designated as "excepted places" and to reduce the number of emergency and temporary positions in the government of the heads of executive departments. The places taken from the excepted list include a large number of private secretaries and confidential clerks, shipping commissioners, various superintendents, engineers, examiners and miscellaneous positions.

EMPEROR

Invites the North Atlantic Squadron to Visit Kiel During Its Summer Cruise.

Washington, March 25—Emperor William, of Germany, has invited the North Atlantic squadron to visit Kiel during its summer cruise. This courtesy was conveyed in a telegram to President Roosevelt who has not yet replied, but he will probably decline. The matter rose in the publication of the fact that the squadron will make a test run across the Atlantic, possibly to Lisbon, to demonstrate its steaming radius and its ability to blockade a European port thereafter. This scheme has now been abandoned, because it was felt that Portugal or some other power might take umbrage.

SUICIDE

Of Sir Hector McDonald Today at Paris

He Was to Face Serious Charge at Courtmartial

Exact Nature of the Charge Not Known--It Affected His Moral Reputation--It Promised to be Sensational Affair.

London, March 25—(Bulletin)—Sir Hector McDonald whose trial by court martial on a sensational charge had been ordered, shot himself at a Paris hotel today. He was en route for Ceylon to stand trial. The nature of the charge against McDonald who had been governor of Ceylon, is not known but it was of a character affecting his moral reputation.

Colombo, Ceylon, March 25—Charges of the most serious nature have been brought against Major General Sir Hector McDonald, commanding the British forces in Ceylon, in consequence of which the governor of that island, Sir Joseph West Ridgway, has been authorized to convene a court-martial to try General MacDonald.

The latter, when the charges were filed some time ago, went to England to confer with his friends and superior officers, and now it is understood he will return and face the charges, which, it is alleged, are based on immoral acts.

London, March 25—The announcement from Colombo that Major General MacDonald is to be tried by court-martial will undoubtedly prove to be the greatest sensation in British military circles since the case of Col Valentine Baker, who was sentenced August 2, 1875, to pay a fine of $2500 and to undergo a twelve months imprisonment for assaulting a woman.

General MacDonald was regarded as one of Britain's great soldiers. He attracted considerable notice, and the sensation was increased when another speaker, who was not aware of the facts in the case, lauded MacDonald as a typical Highland soldier, and found that his remarks were received in cold silence by the majority of the officers present.

Paris, March 25—The Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 361 to 216 rejected all the applications for authorization made by the religious preaching orders.

The entire session was devoted to a discussion of the government's bill which opposes the application of the preaching order for authorization, and the Chamber, by its vote refusing to pass the discussion of the clauses of the bill, declined to consider the application separately for authorization to remain in France, but rejected them all by a single vote. THE SALARY ORDINANCE

Ridiculous and Inconsistent Position of the American-Tribune and Its Humiliation of Mr. Payne.

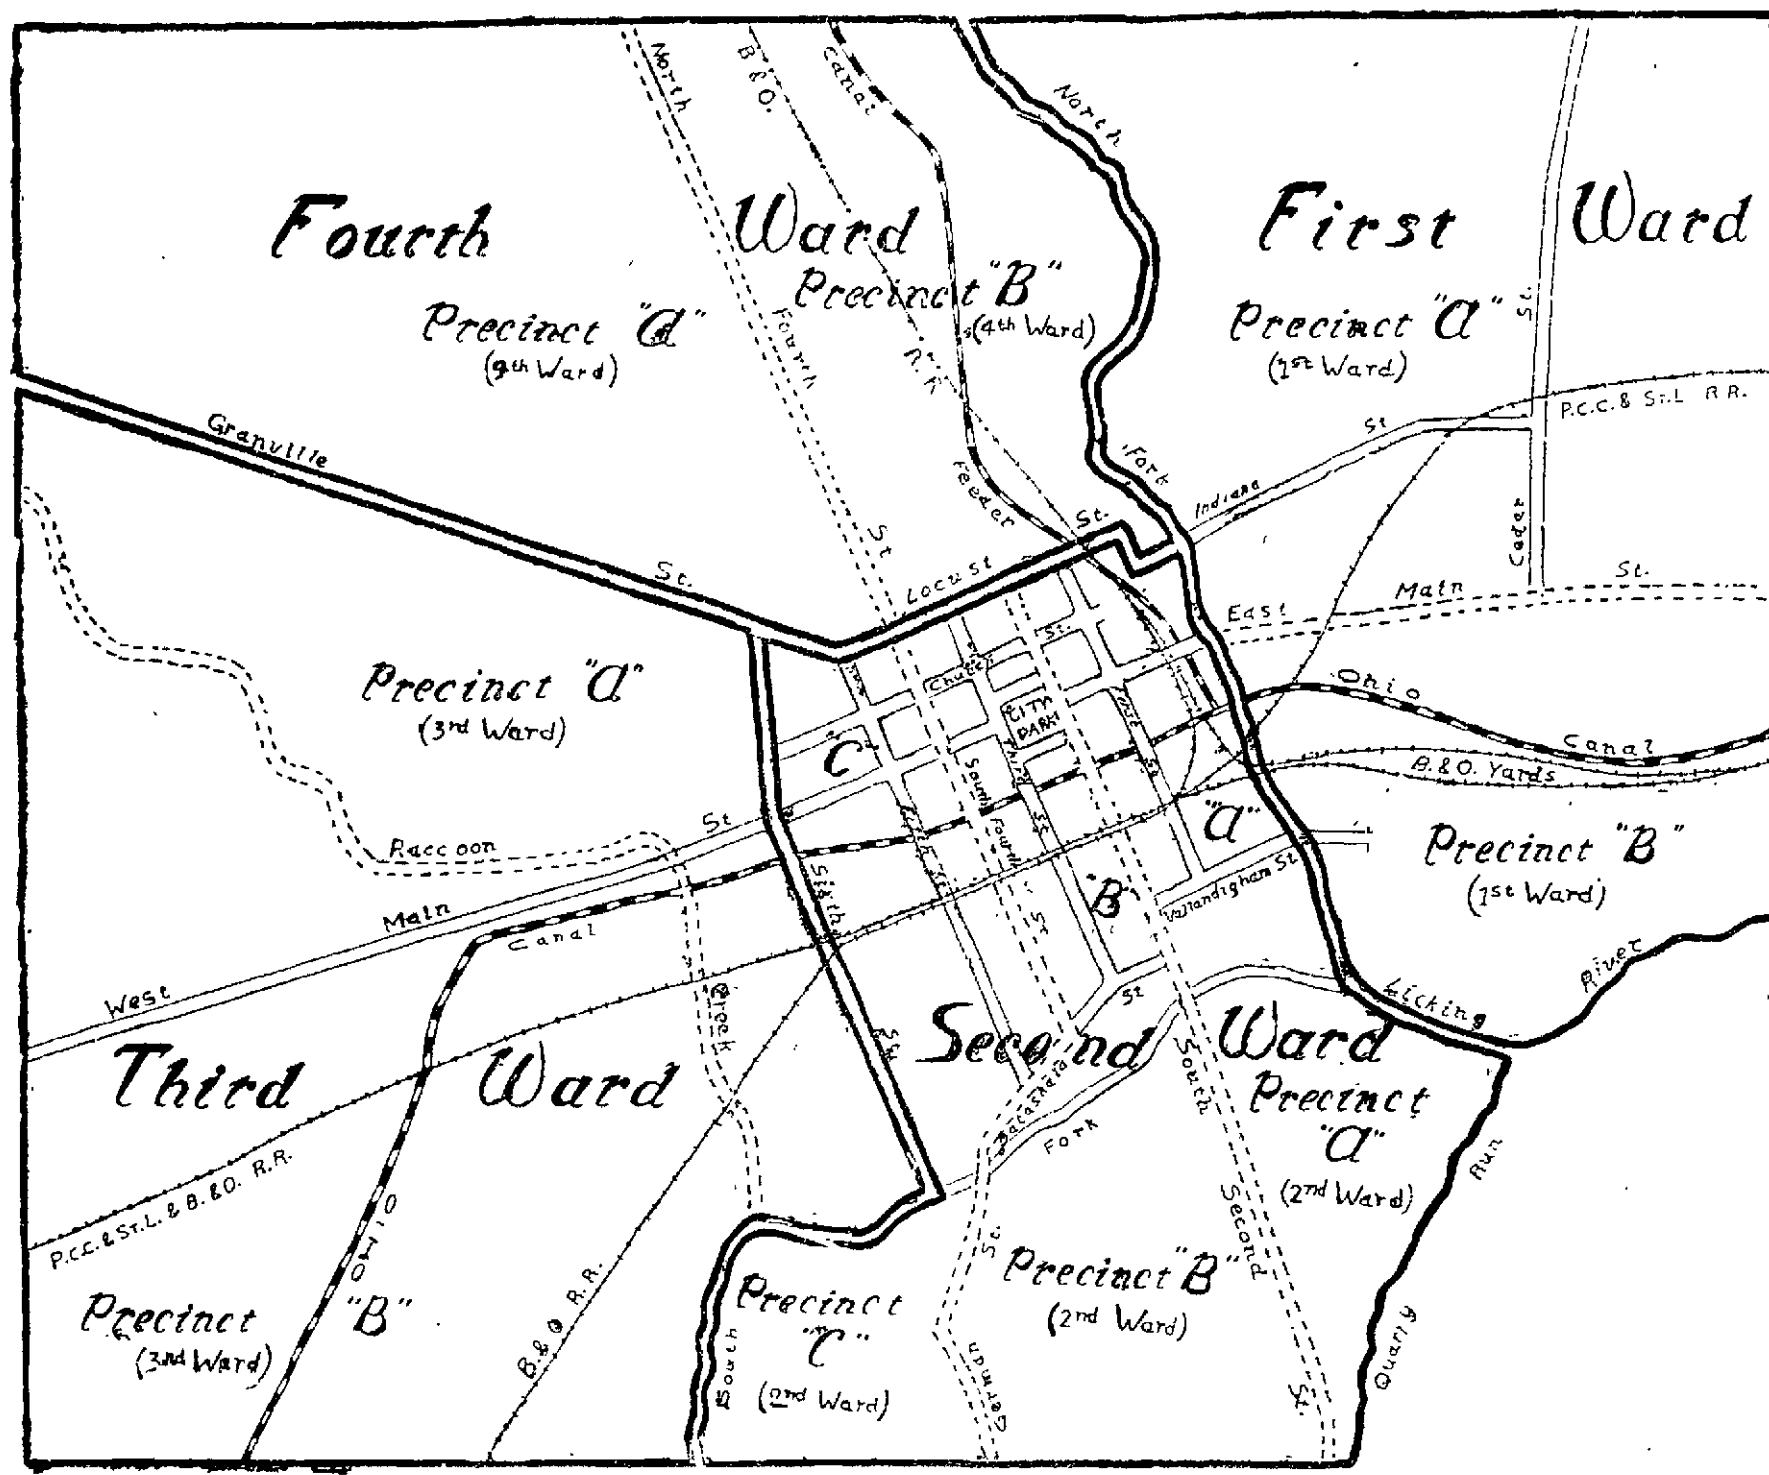

If ever there was a paper that stood discredited with the party of which it assumes to be the official organ that paper is the American-Tribune today. After foisting on Mr. Ora J. Payne, a ridiculous and absurd interview, and then mapping out a plan of action "or that gentleman in accordance with the views expressed for him, that gentleman deliberately and in spite of protests, failed to do what that paper had dictated for him.

A number of paragraphs of silly flattery for Mr. Payne appeared. He was lauded for the action he was about to take in introducing an ordinance to repeal salaries he took an active part in making. The entire program as mapped out by the American-Tribune was one of political buncombe and demagoguery. The time for a protest against the salary ordinance as far as the Republican members of the council were concerned had passed. They were on record as favoring the salaries as fixed by the ordinance which received every Republican vote. If the American Tribune had been conscientiously opposed at that time to the salaries, the only course open to it was to have upheld Messrs. Jones and Smith, the two Democrats, who voted against making the salaries as high as those in the ordinance, and the only ones who thus recorded their votes.

This it refused to do. Only one course was open, to call to a count the Republican members who voted for the ordinance and give a just meed of praise to Messrs. Jones and Smith. This of course was impossible to

MR. RIDER'S WILL

Suit Has Been Commenced by Charles M. Rider and Clementine Roche in Common Pleas Court to Set it Aside.

Suit has been commenced in the Common Pleas Court by Charles M. Rider and Clementine Roche, by their attorneys, Smythe & Smythe, against Mary Zimmerman, Francis R. Peck, Louis H. Rider, Jane Rider, John M. Swartz and Benjamin Franklin, to set aside the last will and testament of Joseph Rider, deceased, of this city.

The plaintiffs in their petition allege that on March 26, 1901, a certain paper, purporting to be the last will and testament of Joseph Rider, bearing date the 10th day of March, 1894, was presented to the Probate Court of Licking county, Ohio, and was admitted to probate by the Court; that the will remains in court as a portion of the records thereof; that letters testamentary were issued thereon by the Probate Court to John M. Swartz and Benjamin Franklin, as executors, and they are now acting as such.

The plaintiffs say that the will is not the last will and testament of Joseph Rider, for that at the date of the same, and for several years prior thereto, Joseph Rider by reason of old age and infirmities, was not of sound mind and memory, and was incapacitated from making a will, or a proper distribution of his property and that he was under undue influence of certain persons who persuaded and coerced him into signing said paper, writing, and who conspired together for the purpose aforesaid; the said writing and the bequests and stipulations were procured and made by reason of said undue influence of the mind of Joseph Rider, so that the same does not, because of such undue influence, speak his wish and will.

Plaintiffs therefore pray that an issue be made up and tried as to whether said paper writing is the last will and testament of Joseph Rider, and that said will be set aside and that it be found and declared not the last will and testament of Joseph Rider, and for other and further relief as is authorized by law.

At the time of the death of the deceased Mr. Rider's estate consisted of a valuable tract of 108 acres at the outskirts of Columbus, two houses and lots in Columbus, the Masonic Hall block on West Main street, Newark, the Crayton drug store block, U. S. express office block, four houses in East Newark, one on North Third certain royalties and other property of lesser value, and altogether his entire property was worth in the neighborhood of $150,000 to $200,000.

A Surprise Party.

Mrs. Ella Wintermute of Oakwood avenue, was the recipient of a delightful surprise on Monday evening, when about forty of her friends came in on her unannounced. The evening was spent in music, and in having a good social time generally. At a late hour an elegant luncheon was served, after which all left for their several homes, well pleased with the evening's enjoyments. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wintermute and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. Swindell, Mr. and Mrs. Husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Jakes of Sandusky, Mrs. Wilkins and Mrs. Charles Wilkins, Mrs. Wray, Misses Code Wray, Florence Targett, Della Oakleaf and sister, Miss Phila Fry, Eda Husband, and Messrs. Chas. Deardurff, Walter Redman, Willie Fry, Frank Gilmore, Earl and Harry Wilkins.

Nets to Catch Workmen.

Assemblyman Butler of the New York legislature has introduced a bill designed to protect men who are compelled to work on high buildings and on bridges. It provides that every contractor responsible for such work shall cause nets to be hung so that in case of accident a workman would fall into the net.

"I think I would be safe in saying that half a hundred men have been killed or seriously injured on high buildings and bridges in New York city during the last year," said Mr. Butler.

"Three men have fallen from the East river bridge. The body of one of them was not recovered. Since the last accident two tugs have been stationed in the East river for the purpose of picking up any men who may fall into the river from the bridge.

"Any person who has seen structural iron workers putting in place steel beams in modern skyscraper buildings will appreciate the necessity of affording these men proper protection while engaged in their hazardous occupation."

Against Sympathetic Strikes.

Classes prohibiting the sympathetic strike will be a feature of this year's agreements between the various contractors' councils and the building trades unions of Chicago.

This was assured when the Architectural Iron Workers' union and the Bricklayers and Masons' union the other day signed agreements with the Employers' association, in which it was agreed that neither party will tolerate or recognize any rights of any other association, union, council or body of men not directly interested in the controversy.

NEW CUP DEFENDER.

Some Features of the Herreshoff's Latest Creation.

The latest candidate for cup defense honors is being rushed to completion in the yards of the Herreshoffs, at Bristol, R. I., for launching April 15, says the New York World. The latest information shows that the boat is already in frame, that she is a marvel of beauty in regard to lines and construction, that while her frames and ribs are heavier than usual the shell is lighter, that the frames of nickel steel are stronger than in any other racing boat the Herreshoffs have built, that the shell is the lightest on record except that of the old Defender and that her mast of nickel steel plates is the strongest spar that the Herreshoffs have ever turned out.

One of the most notable features about her is the generous use of Tobin bronze. This strenuous metal is used for the underbody of the boat. It entirely covers the lead for the keel and also the sheathing for the craft far above the waterline.

So far as the mast is concerned the details are explicit. What the engine is to a steamboat the mast is to a sailing yacht. In this instance the mast itself seems so strongly imbedded in the hull of the ship that it resembles the roots of an oak tree. It is 110 feet from stem to head. It is made of plates of nickel steel 7.40 inch thick. Its diameter is 26 inches. It is strengthened by ten bulb angled stiffeners made of solid nickel steel 2 1/2 inches by 2 inches, the whole making a cylindrical tube that a man of moderate girth measurement could crawl through.

It is the strongest spar ever turned out by the Herreshoffs. It must be interesting to the mathematicians who measure sail areas to know the distance from the center of the mast to the stern is 50 feet, that the distance from the center of the mast to the top-sail is 80 feet 4 inches. The boom of the new craft is 114 feet long, four feet longer than Columbia's. It is strengthened by ten flange plates to stiffen it. Great speed is being made in the construction of the yacht. The riveters are only three days behind the layer out, so that the hull will be completed by the first week in April. There is also one gang on the inside riveting up the mast step. The men are rushing things and working harder than they ever worked before.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

DOLLIVER

Lecture Will be Given April 9, at Taylor Hall—An Enjoyable Concert Tuesday Night.

A fairly large audience enjoyed the concert given by the Geo. H. Iott concert company at Taylor hall last night. Several of the artists were not new to Newark people having been here in the past with other companies, so from the first they had the sympathy and confidence of many who had heard them before. The entertainment which they gave was very pleasing. Mr. Iott's deep bass voice was certainly in its usual good form and whenever he appeared he never failed to elicit an encore. Miss Agnes Pringle at the piano and with the violin demonstrated her ability. Miss Charlotte S. Tarrant is without doubt the best harpist who has appeared in the city this year. Mr. J. J. Franklin Caveny in his chalk talks was both happy in his selections and artistic in his demonstrations.

The announcement was made that the lecture by Jonathan P. Dolliver, which was to have been Saturday, April 11, had been changed to Thursday, April 9th.

If you desire a good complexion use Moki Tea, a pure herb drink. It acts on the liver and makes the skin smooth and clear. Cures sick headaches. 25 cents and 50 cents. Money refunded if it does not satisfy you. Write to W. H. Hooker & Co., Buffalo, N. Y., for free sample. Collins & Son.

LOOK OUT FOR CATARRH

When the cold wave flag is up, freezing weather is on the way. Winter is here in earnest, and with it all the miserable symptoms of Catarrh return—blinding headaches and neuralgia, thick mucous discharges from the nose and throat, a hacking cough and pain in the chest, bad taste in the mouth, fetid breath, nausea and all that makes Catarrh the most sickening and disgusting of all complaints. It causes a feeling of personal defilement and mortification that keeps one nervous and anxious while in the company of others.

In spite of all efforts to prevent it, the filthy secretions and mucous matter find their way into the stomach and are distributed by the blood to every nook and corner of the system; the stomach and kidneys, in fact every organ and part of the body, become infected with the catarrhal poison. This disease is rarely, if ever, even in its earliest stages, a purely local disease or simple inflammation of the nose and throat, and this is why sprays, washes, powders and the various in-haling mixtures fail to cure. Heredity is sometimes back of it—parents have it and so do their children.

In the treatment of Catarrh, anti-septic and soothing washes are good for cleansing purposes or clearing the head and throat, but this is the extent of their usefulness. To cure Catarrh permanently, the blood must be purified and the system relieved of its load of foul secretions, and the remedy to accomplish this is S. S. S. which has no equal as a blood purifier. It restores the blood to a natural, healthy state and the catarrhal poison and effete matter are carried out of the system through the proper channels. S. S. S. restores to the blood all its good qualities, and when rich, pure blood reaches the inflamed membrane and is carried through the portions of the body, they soon heal, the mucous discharges cease and the patient is relieved of the most offensive and humiliating of all complaints. S. S. S. is a vegetable remedy and contains nothing that could injure the most delicate constitution. It cures Catarrh in its most aggravated forms, and cases apparently incurable and hopeless. Write us if you have Catarrh, and our physicians will advise you without charge.

In the case of the City of Newark vs. Mrs. Phoebe Flory, condemnation proceedings, to condemn property on Locust street for the extension of Flory avenue, tried in the Probate Court before the Court and a jury, the jury returned a verdict finding $1200 for the house and $300 for the ground taken and $192.50 damages. A Fighting Bishop.

On one occasion Bishop Selwyn was going down the river Waikato with a Maori when the latter, who was very lazy, left off paddling the canoe, at the same time muttering that if Selwyn were not a bishop he would "well, go for him." In a moment the bishop told the man to turn the canoe ashore, where, stripping himself of everything episcopal, he said, pointing to his robes, etc. "The bishop lies there; the man is here. I am quite ready; come on." The Maori did not "come on," however, but quietly resumed his work without another murmur.—London Tit-Bits.

New York Sheriff.

The reason why the sheriff of New York cannot be elected to two successive terms is this: It is the sheriff's duty to carry out the process of courts against delinquents during trial and after conviction. Should a sheriff endeavor forcibly to hold over for a second time after having been defeated for re-election he would be the instrument of the court's process against himself, a paradoxical position which the law avoids by making him ineligible for re-election.

AN ABSOLUTE NECESSITY

So Think at Least One Traveling Man.

I would as soon think of starting out without my mileage books and grip as to start out on a trip without a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in my valise, said a traveling man who represents a St. Louis hardware house. Why? Because I have to put up at all kinds of hotels and boarding houses. I have to eat good, bad and indifferent food at all hours of the day and night and I don't believe any man's stomach will stand that sort of thing without protest, anyway I know mine won't. It has to have something to break the fall and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the crutch I fall back on.

My friends often "josh" me about it, tell me I'm a easy mark for patent medicine fakers, that advertise medicines are humbugs, etc., but I notice that they are nearly always complaining of the aches and pains and poor digestion, while I can stand most any old kind of fare, and feel good and ready for my work when it needs me, and I believe I owe my good digestion and sound health to the daily, regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, year in and year out, and all the "joshing" in the world will never convince me to the contrary.

I used to have heartburn about three times a day and a headache about three or four times a week and after standing for this or four or five years I began to look around for a crutch and found that the best make would be a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I have invested about fifty cents a month for them ever since.

Now, I can eat anything I like, and I can get on my feet in the morning, and I can order for fifty cents for any help I need.

My druggist is most popular of all and that they have popularized and do as advertised, and results are as advertised, and results are as advertised.

GRANVILLE

MISS SARAH EVANS IS BEING RESTORED TO HEALTH.

Ralph Leonard Nominated for Auditor of Norwalk—New Bank—Glee Club Trip.

Granville, O., March 25—Miss Sarah Evans, the nineteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Evans of this place, sustained a partial stroke of paralysis and a bad fall about two years ago, and since that time up to a few weeks ago has been unable to take a step without the aid of crutches. Her case was considered hopeless by many but through the advice of friends she some three months ago placed herself in the hands of a Columbus doctor and so beneficent has been his treatment that she has been enabled to throw away her crutches, and is rapidly improving in every way. In fact so great is the improvement that it is thought she will ultimately be completely restored to health.

Word has been received here that at the Democratic primaries held in Norwalk, O., last Saturday night, Mr. Ralph Leonard was nominated for city auditor of that city. Mr. Leonard is well and favorably known in Granville, having graduated with honors from Denison university. He is also a graduate of the Ohio State university Law School. His many friends here hope that he may win out on election day, as he is an excellent young man, in and in every way well qualified to fill the office.

The Denison University Orchestra and Glee club left today for a trip through Northern Ohio, giving concerts in Mansfield, Norwalk, Sandusky, Mt. Vernon and Milan. They will return home in time for the opening of school on next Tuesday. It is the intention of these musical organizations to give concerts in Dayton, Franklin and Middletown during the coming term.

Mr. Grove B. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Jones, who is connected with the Bureau of Soils in the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., is spending a few days at his home in Granville. Mr. Jones has been in Texas for some time, having been there and has become very popular because of his fine voice and his beautiful tenor. He will leave for Iowa in a few days to learn that he has been nominated to the position of county clerk in his new field of labor.

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui as I am very grateful for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer from miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

A PALACE OF LOGS.

Peculiar Structure Being Erected at Shore Acres, Me.

William F. Des Isle of East Lamoine, Me., is building a log palace at Shore Acres that will in some respects rival the one built by the Folwells of Philadelphia on an island in Peabody bay, says a Bangor (Me.) special to the Chicago Inter Ocean. The house, which will stand in a grove of birch trees near the seashore, will be constructed somewhat on the plan of the house of Mme. Lavalie, a Frenchwoman of whom Mr. Des Isle is a direct descendant, and who, having received a grant of land in Maine, was among the earliest visitors to that coast, erecting a sort of log castle on the spot where now Mr. Des Isle is building.

The Des Isle loghouse will be 24 by 28 feet in the main part, with two wings, and will be two stories high, with four rooms below and a bath and four sleeping rooms above. The lower story will be constructed of cedar logs with the bark on, while the second story will be plastered inside. A huge fireplace will be a feature of the lower story arrangements, while the main stairway will have the novel post and railings formed of the trunk and limbs of an old tree clothed in bark and moss and fancifully carved.

TARKINGTON'S "BLUFF."

How Indiana Author—Legislator Broke Up a Poker Game.

Booth Tarkington, the Indiana writer, broke up a poker game the other night at the Hotel English in Indianapolis through the aid of a bellboy, says the New York Times. The author learned that there was a stiff game going on in the apartment of one of the members of the general assembly in which a number of legislators were holding hands.

He gave the bellboy $2 and instructed him to go to the room and inform the legislators that Tarkington was in the office threatening vengeance because the Stansbury school bill had been rushed through the house and was talking of having the game raided.

The game came to an end instantly, and five Indiana politicians made a new record in getting out of the apartment and into the street.

An English writer has recently described a battleship as the last word mechanical genius, naval construction and cash payment can say in aggressiveness.

THE MORNING GUN

Similar that I should be an officer; that I should be marching in the place of a second lieutenant in the rear of the company; that I should be in Santiago de Cuba. I have my reminiscence of having been graduated. Yesterday we were marching to and from the mess hall. Yesterday I got befogged in that problem of analytical geometry. Besides, how did I get here? I don't remember coming—no railway ride, no troups in, no debarkation.

"I say, you, there, Bob Truman, how did we of the second class get into this war?"

"Graduated a year ahead."

"But what did we come on?"

"Lighting express to Tampa, then over the water in a balloon."

"Singular."

There was a rattling ahead with drawing my attention from what had happened to what was happening. One captain faced about and gave an order to march from column into line. We struggled through tangled bushes, a Mauser bullet splitting here and there like raindrops pelting the leaves. But twilight was coming, and then it was dark. The firing ahead ceased.

It seemed I was worn out; that I had been with the army from the first and had been over every inch of the road from the egg to our present position before Santiago.

"Will they yield tomorrow, do you think?" asked a pale faced boy, staggering up to me, "and let us get out of this dreadful country?"

"Don't know. I'm suffocating with the heat."

Then it was dawn. The full moon was in the sky far to the west, large and round and pale. When I first looked at it I thought it a great white bird. I wondered if it were not a bird. No, that's the moon, sure enough. No it isn't, it's a big bombshell. It is sailing right for me. As it comes it is turning black. That shows it's a shell surely. It comes on and on, passing directly over our heads and goes down slowly to the rear without bursting.

There is that Gatling gun again. Th-r-r-r-r-r-r from left to right, then th-r-r-r-r-r-r from right to left. Now stillness, now a distant grown, an ooh, an order, anything, everything—everything that is horrible.

Hear that frightful shriek! Some woman leaving the starving city. She must be Spanish, and some brutal Cuban—

That's fainter, more plaintive. O heavens, it's a baby's cry. What an awful thing is war that even a babe must go down under it! A mean—the mother's doubtless—then stillness—a stillness more awful than the sounds.

We are marching through these infernal tangles again, but suddenly emerge on an eminence. There is Santiago below and there are the Spanish flag and the outlying works. There is death in those redoubts on those long lines of low earth. There are driving storms of bullets and bursting rockets of shells, and the muzzles of the Gatling guns pour a destroying flood from the nozzle of a hose. We've got to go down there and take them. Yes, take them if we are torn into slivers. Why don't they shoot? I'd rather hear an occasional shot, see a puff of smoke than see that silence. Yes, see it. I can almost hear it.

Where Is Moore?

At 3 o'clock p. m. Wednesday the Advocate received the following communication:

The continued absence and silence of Roy J. Moore is exciting suspicion of foul play or suicide. He left Zanesville late the night of February 21st; for Columbus, Ohio. No word has been received by his wife or any of his friends since.

Mr. Moore was at one time manager of the Newark Telephone company.

WHEN MORGAN LOST.

Magnate Thought Spanish Game Just About Easy Until He Tried It.

J. Pierpont Morgan, who has played the game of finance with great success, encountered a different proposition and different results when he tried the great Spanish game just about at Havana, says a Tampa (Fla.) special to the New York World.

Passengers from Havana tell of Mr. Morgan's experience in the betting ring where excited thousands watch the sport. With his party the financier was initiated into the mysteries of the game the other Sunday evening. Mr. Morgan thought, like many others, that it would be easy to beat the game, but he went away wiser and with less money.

The best players of the Cuban capital were in the game that night, and in the first partido Mr. Morgan thought that the blues looked like sure winners. He bet 2 cents. The whites won, and the great financier lost $10. On the second partido he doubled his wagers, still pinning his faith to the blues. The whites again won. The first quieta was called, and the banker plunged heavily on Iron, a clever young man who had done fine playing since his arrival from Spain. Iron was among the "also rans" in this match, and the financier lost again. Again he doubled his bets on Iron and again lost.

Then Mr. Morgan had enough. "It is exciting," he remarked, "but it is not for Americans to bet on."

SECRET MARCONI GRAMS.

What Experts Think of Wireless Messages.

The efforts which are being made by Signor Marconi to secure the absolute privacy of his wireless messages are being watched with great interest by the various cable companies, says the London correspondent of the Philadelphia Press. Mr. Carson, the London manager of the Anglo-American Telegraph company, says that at present it is quite impossible for the young inventor to guarantee any secrecy.

"Any one," he said, "who likes to put up a wireless telegraph apparatus can read the messages which are being transmitted provided he gets within the range of the air waves."

The chief electrician of the Eastern Telegraph company said there were some half dozen or more systems of wireless telegraphy being experimented with at the present time. "A certain amount of secrecy," he added, "may be attained by a careful 'tuning' of the instruments whereby only a receiving apparatus which is tuned to precisely the same pitch as the sending instrument will be able to get the message."

Rare Find in Egypt.

Charles H. S. Davis, the American Egyptologist, who has expended considerable sums in exploration work near Thebes, has found a splendid chariot in the tomb of King Thothmes, says a cable dispatch from Cairo to the Chicago Tribune. The fittings of the chariot are of bronze, and the remainder is of gilded wood. The chariot is valued at $25,000.

Remarkable Cures In Jackson, Wellston, Coalton and Glen Roy, Ohio.

Cases that had resisted all efforts of the most skilled local physicians, and all hope of recovery abandoned, have got well under Dr. Yarnell's treatment.

Two notable cures deserve special mention. Miss Lizzie Jones, daughter of Henry Jones, Clay P. O., Jackson County, Ohio, and Mrs. Kenyon, wife of Robert Kenyon, a well known business man of Jackson, Ohio. These cases had been long sufferers with a very difficult and dangerous complication of diseases. The very best medical skill of the County had been unable to give any permanent relief. A full and complete restoration under Dr. Yarnell's treatment is a triumph of skill that has few parallels in the history of the medical practice in Jackson County. Henry J. Stevens, M. M. Morgan, A. R. McFarland, Morgan Davis, Anderson Garrett, W. D. Davis, H. L. Radcliffe, B. F. Masters, John R. Hippel, J. W. Shook, Harrison Emory and many other prominent citizens of Jackson, Wellston, Coalton and Glen Roy, Ohio, will gladly testify to Dr. Yarnell's skill in his specialties.

Heart, Liver, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

PETER MILLER'S WONDERFUL RECOVERY!

A Pioneer of Morgan County, Banker, Farmer and Wool Buyer.

Read what he says: His word is as good as gold.

To whom it may concern:

It is known to my friends in McConnelsville and many of my former neighbors and acquaintances living in the country, that I have suffered with a severe complication of diseases, involving the Heart, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, which brought me very near to death's door. My family physician, one of the most skillful practitioners in the county, said I had not one chance in a hundred of recovery, and all efforts for my relief entirely failed until I applied to Dr. Yarnell. He seemed to comprehend the nature and wants of my case at once. His remedies, somehow, went directly to the spot affected, and gave me benefit in a single day, and now after taking a two months' course of his treatment, I feel that I have acquired a new lease of life. The terrible sufferings and inconvenience which I endured, caused by the Kidneys and Bladder, are all gone. I can be all night undisturbed and rise in the morning refreshed and invigorated. My restoration is wonderful and I make this public statement voluntarily because it is a just tribute to Dr. Yarnell's skill and a duty I owe to others who may need his treatment.

PETER MILLER, McConnelsville, Ohio.

Catarrh of the Throat Cured after Fifteen Years Suffering.

Mrs. D. W. Nosset, a very estimable lady and one of the prominent citizens of Cambridge, Ohio, has been a great sufferer from Catarrh for fifteen years—could get no relief anywhere from her distressing attacks of catarrhal inflammation of the throat and bronchial tubes.

In the Fall of 1898, she took two courses of treatment from Dr. Yarnell which accomplished a complete cure, and she has not had a moment's suffering from Catarrh since.

Wm. Foraker, a prominent citizen of Byessville, Guernsey Co., Ohio, placed his boy, twelve years old, under Dr. Yarnell's treatment for Catarrhal deafness, in February, 1897. He had been afflicted with Catarrh from infancy, and was almost totally deaf—could hear no ordinary sound. In two months the hearing was fully restored and the catarrh cured.

A Thousand Dollar Forfeit.

The remarkable cures mentioned in Dr. Yarnell's medical circular and in the newspaper announcements, some of which seem almost miraculous, are but a few among hundreds of others, equally astonishing, which Dr. Yarnell is performing every month in some part of the State. He doesn't refer you to people a thousand miles away, but to reliable citizens of Ohio, living in your own county, or adjoining counties, from whom you can inquire, and get answers in a single day—and ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS will be paid for any statement given that is not absolutely correct.

A Warning to Catarrh Sufferers.

No one with catarrh is safe—you have already passed or are rapidly approaching the danger line. Another winter may carry the dread disease to the lungs—Don't think your escape during the previous winters is any security against the present winter. The aim of this insidious disease is always toward the lungs. Your very next cold may be the fatal one.

There were two million deaths in the United States in the year 1901. More than Four Hundred and Fifty Thousand died of Consumption and over Three Hundred and Twenty Thousand died of Disease of the Kidneys.

Four-fifths of the fatal cases of Consumption throughout the land are the sad endings of a neglected catarrh. If you are in the grasp of this dread disease, you have no time to lose. Consult Dr. Yarnell at this point. Terms of treatment reasonable. Special low rates to people of moderate means.

It Cures Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced cases. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by druggists everywhere. Large bottles 25 cents and 50 cents.

Will be at Newark, Hotel Doty, March 25 to April 1

When you don't feel right—are not yourself—but don't know what is the matter, try taking Walther's Peptonized Port. It is just a good common sense tonic that works in a natural way. It is simply a combination of pure pepsin, nature's own digestive agent—with that fine, old tonic—good port wine. If it doesn't do the work you need a doctor. If you are not in need of a doctor it will do the work. Do not experiment with patent nostrums of mysterious make-up, which you would not touch if you knew their composition. For sale by Frank D. Hall, Newark, Ohio. Small size 50 cents, large size $1.00.

NOVEL COAT FOR MEN.

It Has Wide Plaits That Flap Like Wings.

Harry Lehr's friend, Mr. Perrin, a former Baltimorean, has an overcoat that is unlike anything in New York. It has pleased Mr. Lehr's fancy, and the leader of society will soon have one like it, says the New York Evening Journal. Mr. Perrin invented the coat and "discovered" the tailor, and he is the happiest man in New York. The coat is a raglan with a full plaited tail, which flaps like a bird's wings when Mr. Perrin walks. The tailor is an Irishman. In this fact lies a mystery, according to the Baltimorean. He had not supposed an Irishman could be a tailor. Yet the man with the brogue made this superior garment after sketches and carefully evolved patterns drawn by Mr. Perrin, and all for $50 too. The thing is so cheap, so beautiful, with such an air of distinction and made by an Irishman!

"Look at my $50 coat, and it was made by an Irishman. And I originated it myself," is the way Mr. Perrin calls attention to his new garment. The skirt is very long and has three deep plaits on each side, which fly out at the bottom. The pockets are diagonal and finished with big, sloping flaps, these forming a top for the plaits.

MR. STARR DECLINES.

The Advocate—I wish you would place in the columns of your paper that I am no candidate for council of this ward and that my name has appeared on the ticket by some mistake, that I never thought of being a candidate for that office, and furthermore I do not want it as my business would not permit me the necessary time to give to it. Thanking you for the favor, I am, Very truly yours,
E. L. STARR.

New Land Bill.

London, March 25—A new Irish land deal was introduced in Parliament today which England hopes will bring prosperity to the Irish. Is based on the idea of selling great landed estates to tenements on easy terms. It is expected that if he scheme goes through an era of prosperity will result such as this unhappy country never before experienced.

The South African colonies and islands owned by Germany have no local legislature or even crown councils. Each is ruled by an autocrat appointed by the Emperor.

A Canadian inventor claims to have invented a system of telephoning between stations, utilizing the railroad tracks instead of a line of wire for the transmission of messages.
